ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for alleged offence punishable under Section 379 of I.P.C., in Crime No.1789 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 06.05.2020, the de-facto complainant and his police party while checking the vehicle, intercepted the lorry bearing Registration No. TN-45-J-3294. The driver stopped the vehicle. The petitioner, who is the owner of the vehicle and the driver ran away from the place of occurrence. It was found that the petitioner was transporting two units of river sand without any permission and licence. The cleaner of the lorry was arrested and case was registered under Section 379 of I.P.C.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated by the de-facto complainant with a view to create bad antecedent to the petitioner. The petitioner is a permanent resident and he will not abscond. The petitioner will co-operate with the investigation and prayed for granting anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner transported 2 units of river sand without any permission, affecting the water source. The petitioner is absconding. The investigation is pending and prayed for dismissal of the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance within 15 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order before the Court of Judicial Magistrate No. I, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur District, on the following conditions:

(i) the petitioner executes a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate No. I, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur District;
