2. The case of the prosecution is that based on the allegation reported by the media in respect of the written examination held at Rameswaram and Keelakarai Centre in respect of the recruitment to the posts included in CCSE-4(Group IV service), which was held 01.09.2019, a thorough analysis of the answer pattern of the few candidates, who had secured the top positions in the rank list and who had written the examination at Rameswaram and Keelaarai Centre at Ramanathapuram District, was done. Thereafter, present case was registered by the respondent police.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has never committed or involved in any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner surrendered on 14.02.2020 before the XI Metropolitan Magistrate, Saidapet, Chennai. As such, the statutory period for filing of charge sheet was going to end. At that time, in order to retain the petitioner to continue him in judicial custody, his name has been falsely implicated in two other cases and interrogation was completed in that cases. He is in prison for the past 79 days. Hence, he sought for bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor (CrI.side) submitted that the accused persons involved in committing the offence by fabricating documents, forging the signature and tampering with the answer sheets. This petitioner aided the prime accused in commission of crime. Thereby, they committed a serious offence as against the society. He further submitted that this petitioner is concerned, he assisted the main accused for shading the OMR sheets and received some amount as a commission from the main accused. He further submitted that the accused persons, who were aware of the entire movement of the answer sheets, handed over the OMR sheets to the respective candidates, got filled the OMR sheets and restored the same in their respective places. He further submitted that some accused yet to be arrested and that the investigation is still pending and therefore, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5.It is seen that the petitioner and the other accused persons are the accused in the scam of Group IV and Group II-A examination conducted by TNPSC and they fabricated the documents, forged the signature of Government officials and tampered with the examination sheets. Thereby, they committed serious offences against the society and as such, this Court has dismissed the bail petitions of the co-accused on various occasions. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and hence, the petition stands dismissed. However, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the Magistrate Court concerned under Section 167(2) of Cr.P.C., to obtain default bail.
