(Crime No.174 of 2020)

Prayer: Criminal Original Petition filed for anticipatory bail under Section 438 of Criminal Procedure Code.

For Petitioner : Mr.K.Balaji
For Respondent : Mr.T.Shunmuga Rajeswaran
Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for alleged offence punishable under Sections 379 & 430 of I.P.C. and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.174 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 25.04.2020, on receipt of secret information that river sand is mined and sold in the open market, the defacto complainant and Police party found that petitioner was transporting $\frac{1}{4}$ unit of river sand in a bullock cart. On seeing the Police party, the petitioner left the bullock cart and sand and ran away from the place of occurrence. The respondent Police registered a case against the petitioner under Sections 379 & 430 of I.P.C. and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is a permanent resident, respectable person in his locality, he is innocent and his name is falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions imposed by this Court and prayed for granting anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner has committed serious offence of transporting river sand illegally, affecting the water source and sold it in the open market and caused loss to the Government. He further submitted that investigation is pending and prayed for dismissal of the petition.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts of the case and nature of offences, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance within 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Court of Judicial Magistrate No.II, Virudhachalam, on the following conditions:

(i) The petitioner executes a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police Officer who arrests him or the aforementioned Judicial Magistrate;

(ii) The petitioner deposits a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) before the District Mineral Foundation, Cuddalore District, within one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and (iii)The petitioner appears before the respondent Police as and when required for interrogation.

7.In the result, the Criminal Original Petition is allowed.
