The case of the prosecution is that On 17.05.2020, the defacto complainant's daughter-in-law who is working as a Sub-Inspector of Police in Kottur Police Station, seized the vehicle which was used for transportation of river sand illegally and arrested the accused persons. As a result, the petitioner and her husband went to defacto complainant's house and abused the defacto complainant in a filthy language and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case has been registered against the petitioner.

language and also threatened him with dire consequences. He would further submit that no one sustained any injury during the incident. However, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with one surety for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
