2. Mr.J.Kumaran, learned Additional Government Pleader (P) takes notice for the respondents.

3. The grievance of the petitioner is that though an enquiry was conducted under Section 23 of the Pondicherry Settlement Act, no final orders have been passed, but the Revenue Records have been mutated in the name of the fifth respondent's mother.

4. Mr.J.Kumaran, learned Additional Government Pleader (Puducherry) would submit that final orders have been passed on 29.05.2019 and the same has also been served on the petitioner.

5. Mr. R.Sreedhar, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would seriously dispute the said statement and claimed that no order has been served on the petitioner.

6. Mr.J.Kumaran, learned Additional Government Pleader (Puducherry) would however submit that he would forward the copy of the final order dated 29.05.2019 to the counsel for the petitioner and the petitioner would be at liberty to file an Appeal treating the date of receipt of the order from him as the date of receipt of the order for the purposes of limitation.

7. In view of the above submission the Writ Petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file an appeal treating the date of receipt of the order from the learned Additional Government Pleader as the actual date of receipt for the purpose of limitation. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
