The petitioner who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 10.06.2020 for the offence punishable under Sections 379 and 430 IPC in Crime No.1305 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 10.06.2020 based on the secret information, the respondent police went to the Thirumalairajan river to conduct a prohibition raid, where the petitioner was illegally trying to transport 150 kgs of river sand in a bag without any permit or valid licence and it was seized by the respondent police.

On instruction, he would further submit that without prejudice to their defence, the petitioners are prepared to deposit some considerable amount to any charitable organization, and that the petitioner is suffering incarceration from 10.06.2020. Hence, he prays for grant of bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that there was no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for the grant of bail.

5.In view of the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioner and in order to curb the illegal sand mining activities, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees five thousand only) jointly to the 'Manonmani Trust' and also taking note of the fact the period of incarceration by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following condition:
