ORDER

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 & 506(ii) of I.P.C read with 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.1287/2020, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners used filthy language against the defacto complainant and her family and also attacked the defacto complainant and her son with deadly weapons during the wordy quarrel between them. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the the petitioners are innocent and nothing to do with the alleged offence. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant during the wordy quarrel between them and caused injury and the defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Maduranthagam, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on
