The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 506(ii) & 109 of IPC, in Crime No.1569 of 2020, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that there was a pathway dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to wordy quarrel the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and in connection with that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. Hence, a case was

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that there was a pathway dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to wordy quarrel the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and in connection with that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant. He would also submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous case pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruthuraipoondi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- each (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
