2. The case of the prosecution is that while the defacto complainant's son was standing near the lakshipuram bridge, the accused came to the spot, abused him with unparliamentary words and attacked him with hands. On knowing this, the defacto complainant rushed to the spot and questioned the same due to which, the petitioner along with other accused abused him and assaulted the him with knife. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner in an drunken mood assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injury in his leg. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of lifting of lockdown or the commencement of Court's normal functioning whichever is earlier, before the Judicial Magistrate, Katpadi, Vellore District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
