O R D E R

With the consent of both the parties, the Writ Petition is taken up today and heard through video conferencing.

2. The petitioner herein seeks for a direction to consider his representation dated 18.05.2018, wherein he has made some allegations against the fifth and sixth respondents herein. The averments in the affidavit filed before this Court are purely on surmises and presumptions. Even otherwise, the petitioner seems to have certain personal vendetta against the fifth and sixth respondents, for which purpose he has given complaints before the police, as well as, before the Income Tax Department. The request of the petitioner does not deserve consideration since the dispute between the petitioner and the fifth and sixth respondents seems to be personal. There is no sufficient material before this Court to establish that the petitioner's request before the Income Tax Department should be considered. As such, on a mere pretext and suspicion, this Court may not be justified in directing the Income Tax Department to consider the petitioner's representation. Accordingly, I do not find any merits in the Writ Petition. Hence, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
