(The case has been heard through video conference)

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 379 IPC and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.466 of 2020, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had illegally transported one unit of river sand illegally by using Tractor, without any permit or valid licence. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. On instruction, he would further submit that taking into consideration the present Covid pandemic situation the petitioners are prepared to donate/pay some considerable amount to any charitable organization or association without prejudice to his defence and prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners had illegally transported 1 unit of river sand by using Tractor, without any valid licence or permit. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. He would further submit that the petitioners have no previous case.

5. In order to curb the illegal sand mining activities and taking into consideration the voluntary submission made by the petitioners offering to donate/pay considerable amount to any charitable organization or association this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners may be directed to donate/pay a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) jointly to the Claretian Life Animation Project Trust, A/c.No.1190155000096499, IFSC-KVBL0001190, The Karur Vysya Bank Ltd., Tambaram Branch, Chennai, without prejudice to their rights and contentions before the trial Court.

6. Merely, because the petitioners have deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

7. Taking note of the facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions:

(a) The petitioners are directed to pay a sum of Rs.15,000/- jointly either through RTGS/NEFT or in cash in favour of "Claretian Life Animation Project Trust, A/c.No.1190155000096499, IFSC-KVBL0001190, The Karur Vysya Bank Ltd., Tambaram Branch, Chennai," within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Thereafter, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or their appearance and on production of proof of payment of the above amount and on further condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the police officer who intends to arrest, failing which the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed automatically and on further condition that the petitioners shall also give an letter of undertaking before the respondent/police that the said amount has been paid in respect of particular crime number.

[e] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
