(Crime No.555 of 2020)

...Respondent

Prayer: Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C. to grant Anticipatory bail to the petitioner in the event of their arrest in Crime No.555 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police.

For Petitioners : Mr. N. Suriya Muthu

For Respondent : Mr.M. Mohamed Riyaz

Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

(The case has been heard through video conference)

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences publishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, and 506(2) IPC and altered to Section 307 of I.P.C in Crime No.555 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that A1 in this case has drove the two wheeler in a fast and negligent manner due to which, a wordy quarrel ensued between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and the petitioners abused and attacked the defacto complainant with iron rod and wooden log and also threatened him with dire consequences and thereby the defacto complainant sustained injuries in his head. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that there is a case in counter in C.C.No.554 of 2020 and that a false case has been foisted against them. He would submit that the petitioner are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case and that they are no way connected in this case. He would further submit that the A1 in this case was arrested and later released on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that there was a wordy quarrel between them due to which the petitioners abused and attacked the defacto complainant with iron and wooden log and criminally intimidated him with dire consequences and thereby the defacto complainant caused simple injury in his head and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and the fact that there is a case in counter and the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ambattur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police every day at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.

8. With the above directions, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered.
