The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 427, 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.609 of 2020, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Santhi is that on 29.08.2020 when the defacto complainant was on her way to the agriculture land, the petitioners were destroying the pathway by using Tractor. When the same was questioned, the petitioners used unparliamentary words and also attacked her. Hence, the complaint.

3. Th learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and a false case has been foisted against them due to previous enmity. Hence, he seeks for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to previous enmity the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant due to which, she sustained simple injury and that she has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days after lifting of lockdown or the commencement of Court's normal functioning whichever is earlier, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Paramathi, Namakkal District, on condition that each petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
