O R D E R

This writ petition has been filed for issuance of a writ of mandamus forbearing the respondents from interfering with the possession and enjoyment of the subject property.

2.Heard Mr.C.K.M.Appaji, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.Annai Ezhil, learned Government Advocate, appearing on behalf of the respondents 1 to 3.

3.The specific case of the petitioner is that the respondents 4 to 7 are attempting to interfere with the possession and enjoyment of the petitioner and according to the petitioner, they are land grabbers.

4.The issue projected in the present writ petition is purely a private dispute, which can never become a subject matter in a writ petition. If the petitioner is aggrieved by the action of the respondents 4 to 7, it is always left open to the petitioner to file a suit before the appropriate civil Court and seek for the relief. A writ petition cannot be maintained before this Court by just adding the revenue authorities as respondents. The grievance expressed by the petitioner cannot be resolved by the revenue authorities. The petitioner has to either give a police complaint, if the respondents 4 to 7 are attempting to grab the property of the petitioner, or the petitioner has to work out his remedy before the competent civil Court. The revenue authorities will have no say in a dispute of this nature. Except giving this liberty, no further orders can be passed in the present writ petition.

This writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
