4.In the suit, the application filed seeking interim orders are yet to be disposed of. However, the defendants have filed their written statement and they were not able to file the present documents along with the written statement. But it is stated in the affidavit that these documents are of vital significance and directly relate to the issues in the case.

5.In view of the fact that it would only be appropriate, when the parties are afforded an opportunity for trial to put forth their respective cases, the application is allowed and the documents filed along with the said application are taken on file as documents filed along with the written statement by the defendants.
