2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the petitioner along with three others have criminally intimidated, abused and assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
