(The case has been heard through video conference)

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294 (b), 326 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.1718 of 2020, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant Selvaraj is that on 11.10.2020 at about 7 p.m., when his son Parthiban was returning home, the accused persons in an inebriated state were abusing the passersby and when the same was questioned, the accused assaulted the defacto complainant's son with beer bottle due to which, he sustained head injury.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners in an inebriated state, abused and assaulted the defacto complainant's son with beer bottle due to which, he sustained head injury. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the petitioners and that there is a counter case in Crime No.1719 of 2020. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and the fact that there is no previous case against the petitioners, the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a counter case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Kancheepuram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter, every Monday at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond/s, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
