ORDER

The petitioner, who is the owner of the vehicle viz., Honda Activa, bearing registration number TN 73 AB 9970 , filed a petition in C.M.P.No.494 of 2020 for return of vehicle, which was seized in connection with Crime No.336 of 2020. The learned Judicial Magistrate, No.2, Walajapet, by order dated 01.10.2020, dismissed the petition, against which the petitioner before this Court.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 11.08.2020, at about 11.30 a.m., the Inspector of Police attached to the respondent Police Station along with his team conducted road check in Walaja to Aambur Road. At that time, the vehicle bearing registration number TN 73 AB 9970 (Honda Activa) was signalled to stop. When the Respondent Police questioned the rider of the bike he disclosed his identify as Kannan, residing at Venkataraman Street, Walaja, Ranipet District. When his two wheeler was searched, 98 bottles of Diamond XXX Rum 180 ml were found. When the same was questioned, the rider of the bike Kannan confessed that he was transporting the bottles for selling at higher price for gain. The said Kannan was arrested and the bottles were seized and the bike was also taken into custody by the respondent Police. Thereafter, the respondent Police registered an FIR in Crime No.336 of 2020, for offence under Section 4(1)(a), 4(1-A) ii of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, 1937.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle viz., Honda Activa, bearing registration number TN 73 AB 9970, and one Kannan misused his bike without his knowledge. On coming to know about the seizure of the vehicle by the respondent Police, the petitioner filed a petition under Section 451 r/w 457 Cr.P.C on 05.10.2020 before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet, which was returned. Thereafter, the petitioner filed Crl.M.P.No.494 of 2020 before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet, on the ground that the petitioner was need of his vehicle for daily use. In support of the ownership of the vehicle, the petitioner produced relevant documents along with affidavit. Since the Assistant Public Prosecutor filed his objection that the investigation is yet to be completed and no Court has power to return the property as interim custody and the confiscation proceedings was initiated, the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet, dismissed the petition.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that in the case of "Sakthidevi Versus State by The Inspector of Police, Thittachery Police Station, Nagapattinam District in Crl.R.C.No.501 of 2011", this Court considering the case of David (Cited Supra), had given a finding to the effect that mere pendency of the confiscation proceedings, is not a bar for granting the relief of interim custody of the vehicle and ordered return of vehicle. This case has been followed by this Court in the case of "C.Srinivasan Versus State rep. by, The Inspector of Police, Manikandam Police Station, Trichy District in Crl.R.C.(MD)No.75 of 2019 and in the case of Sundaramoorthy Versus State rep by The Sub Inspector of Police, Vaippur Police Station, Vaippur Tiruvarur District in Crl.R.C.No.1113 of 2015". Hence, it was submitted that it is a consistent view of this Court to grant interim custody of the vehicle to the owner, who is not an accused.

5. Recently this Court in the case of "B.Sathish Kumar Versus State rep. by Inspector of Police, Anaicut Police Station, Kancheepuram in CrI.R.C.No.648 of 2019, by order dated 13.08.2019", ordered return of vehicle to the owner. Thus, this Court in the cases of vehicles involved in prohibition offences, ordered return of vehicle to the owner. Hence, he prayed that the petitioner to be entrusted with the interim custody of the vehicle. Further, the vehicle of the petitioner is exposed in open space to vagaries of weather and thereby, the value of the vehicle is getting diminished. Further, he placed reliance on the citation of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Versus State of Gujarat reported in 2002 10 SCC 290", wherein guidelines were issued in the cases of return of property to the owner.

6. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the confiscation proceedings already initiated by the Prohibition Officer. He further submitted that the petitioner was evading the receipt of notice in the confiscation proceedings. Suppressing the same, the petitioner filed the above petition. The initiation of the confiscation proceedings is reflected in the FIR in Crime No.1514 of 2020 as well in the order of the lower Court. The petitioner had knowingly allowed his vehicle to be used by the rider of the bike Kannan to illegally transport the Rum bottles for gain. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor apprehends that if the vehicle is returned to the petitioner, he would continue to indulge in such activities. It would be appropriate to await the outcome of the confiscation proceedings.

7. This Court considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

8. It is not in dispute that the petitioner is the owner of the vehicle viz., Honda Activa, bearing registration number TN 73 AB 9970, and he is not an accused in Crime No.336 of 2020. It is seen that from 11.08.2020, the vehicle is kept in open space and thereby, the value of the vehicle is getting diminished. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Sunderbhai Ambalal Desai Versus State of Gujarat reported in 2002 10 SCC 290", had given guidelines in the cases of return of property to the owner.

9. Further, this Court in the case of "Sakthidevi Versus State by The Inspector of Police, Thittachery Police Station, Nagapattinam District in CrI.R.C.No.501 of 2011", considered the case of "David Vs. Sakthivel, Inspector of Police-cum-Station House Officer reported in 2010 1 MLJ (CrI.) 929" and ordered return of seized vehicle to the owner, which is being consistently followed, despite initiation of the confiscation proceedings.

10. In view of the aforesaid reasons, this court is constrained to set aside the order passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet made in C.M.P.No.494 of 2020, dated 01.10.2020 and the criminal revision is allowed.

11. The learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Walajapet is directed to return the vehicle, viz., Honda Activa, bearing registration number TN 73 AB 9970, on the following conditions:-

(i) The petitioner shall produce the original RC Book and other relevant records to prove his ownership and the learned Magistrate, on perusal of the RC book and other records, retaining the Xerox copy of the same, shall return the original documents to the revision petitioner with a view to use the vehicle;

(ii) The petitioner shall not alter or alienate the vehicle in any manner till adjudication is over;

(iii) The petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit through RGS/NEFT in favour of the "The Dean, Rajiv Gandhi Government General Hospital, Chennai, bearing A/c. No.10273425961, State Bank of India, Park Town (Chennai), 68, Evening Bazaar Road, Chennai, IFSC:SBIN0001856, on such payment and production of proof, the vehicle shall be returned.

(iv) The petitioner shall also give an undertaking that he will not use the vehicle for any illegal activities in future and also to produce the vehicle as and when required by the respondent and by the court below and as well as by the District Collector of the District or authorized officer in that behalf by the Government.
