2. The case of the prosecution as per the de facto complainant Veerakumar is that on 30.09.2020, he received a parcel in a courier and it was found to be an explosive substance. The de facto complainant had suspected that he had invested in a financial Company viz., Elphin E.Com Private Limited and since the amount was not repaid, he had demanded repayment and thereby, the persons, who were running the finance company, had sent the explosive substances through courier.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he is no way connected with the alleged offence. In fact the petitioner has lodged several complaints against the said Elbin Financial Institution and the same were registered in Crime No.1 of 2019 on the file of the Economical Offences Wing, Trichy and Crime No.68 of 2019 has been filed on the file of the Maruvathur Police Station, Perambalur District and yet another case has been registered in Crime No.218 of 2020 on the file of the Avaniyapuram Police Station, Madurai City and that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case only on the confession of co-accused and the co-accused in this case have been granted bail by this Court vide Crl.O.P.Nos.13459 of 2020 and Crl.O.P.No.19294 of 2020 by order dated 26.11.2020 and 11.12.2020 respectively and that the petitioner has been suffering incarceration for 85 days from 30.09.2020. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police would vehemently oppose stating that the de facto complainant had invested money in a finance company called Elphin E.Com Private Limited and since he claimed money, the directors of the Company had sent explosive substances through courier. He would submit that the petitioner is a part of the gang, which had sent the explosive substances.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that there is no whisper about the petitioner in the complaint.

6. Heard the learned counsel on either side. Perused the FIR.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions of the learned Counsels and also the fact that the alleged explosive substance has not exploded and no one got injured and the co-accused in this case have been granted bail by this Court and also considering the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:
