

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED : 05.06.2020

CORAM:

THE HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN

Crl.O.P. No.23847 of 2017
and
Crl.MP.No.13814 of 2017

P.Janakiraman ... Petitioner

Versus

1.State rep.by
The Inspector of police,
All Women Police Station,
Panrutti & Taluk,
Cuddalore District.

2.J.Sundari ... Respondent

Prayer: Criminal Original Petition filed under section 482 of Criminal Procedure Code, to call for the records relating to C.C.No.22 of 2017, pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I, Cuddalore District and quash the same.

For Petitioner :Mr.R.Thenjan

For Respondents :Mr.M. Mohamed Riyaz,
Additional Public Prosecutor. (for R1&R2)

O R D E R

This petition has been filed to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.22 of 2017, pending on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I, Cuddalore District, taking cognizance for the offences under Sections 294(b), 323, 498(A), 506(i) of IPC., and r/w 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Women Harassment (TNPWH) Act, in Crime No.10 of 2014, as against this petitioner.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The first respondent police without any basis, registered a case in Crime No.10 of 2014 for the offences under Sections 294(b), 323, 498(A), 506(i) of IPC., and r/w 4 of TNPWH Act, as against the petitioner and the same has been taken cognizance in C.C.No.22 of 2017 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I, Cuddalore District. Hence he prayed to quash the same.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that trial has been commenced in the case and some of the witnesses have been examined during.

4. Heard M/s.R.Thenjan, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.M.Mohamed Riyaz, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the first respondent.

5.It is relevant to rely upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India passed in Crl.A.No.579 of 2019 dated 02.04.2019 in the case of Devendra Prasad Singh Vs. State of Bihar & Anr., as follows:-

" 12.So far as the second ground is concerned, we are of the view that the High Court while hearing the application under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. had no jurisdiction to appreciate the statement of the witnesses and record a finding that there were inconsistencies in their statements and, therefore, there was no prima facie case made out against respondent No.2. In our view, this could be done only in the trial while deciding the issues on the merits or/and by the Appellate Court while deciding the appeal arising out of the final order passed by the Trial Court but not in Section 482 Cr.P.C. proceedings.

13.In view of the foregoing discussion, we allow the appeal, set aside the impugned order and restore the aforementioned complaint case to its original file for being proceeded with on merits in accordance with law.

6.Recently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dealing in respect of the very same issue in Crl.A.No.1572 of 2019 dated 17.10.2019 in the case of Central Bureau of Investigation Vs. Arvind Khanna, wherein, it has been held as follows:

"19. After perusing the impugned order and on hearing the submissions made by the learned senior counsels on both sides, we are of the view that the impugned order passed by the High Court is not sustainable. In a petition filed under Section 482 of Cr.P.C., the High Court has recorded findings on several disputed facts and allowed the petition. Defence of the accused is to be tested after appreciating the evidence during trial. The very fact that the High Court, in this case, went into the most minute details, on the allegations made by the appellant-C.B.I., and the defence put-forth by the respondent, led us to a conclusion that the High Court has exceeded its power, while exercising its inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

20. In our view, the assessment made by the High Court at this stage, when the matter has been taken cognizance by the Competent Court, is completely incorrect and uncalled for."

7. Further the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India also held in the order dated 02.12.2019 in CrI.A.No.1817 of 2019 in the case of M.Jayanthi Vs. K.R.Meenakshi & anr, as follows:

"9. It is too late in the day to seek reference to any authority for the proposition that while invoking the power under Section 482 Cr.P.C for quashing a complaint or a charge, the Court should not embark upon an enquiry into the validity of the evidence available. All that the Court should see is as to whether there are allegations in the complaint which form the basis for the ingredients that constitute certain offences complained of. The Court may also be entitled to see (i) whether the preconditions requisite for taking cognizance have been complied with or not; and (ii) whether the allegations contained in the complaint, even if accepted in entirety, would not constitute the offence alleged.

13. A look at the complaint filed by the appellant would show that the appellant had incorporated the ingredients necessary for prosecuting the respondents for the offences alleged. The question whether the appellant will be able to prove the allegations in a manner known to law would arise only at a later stage....."

The above judgments are squarely applicable to this case and as such, the points raised by the petitioner cannot be considered by this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

8. In view of the above discussion, this Court is not inclined to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.22 of 2017 in Crime

No.10 of 2014 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate - I, Cuddalore District. The petitioner is at liberty to raise all the grounds before the trial Court. Further, the Trial Court is directed to complete the trial within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

9. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is also closed.
