ORDER

Today, the matter is called through Video Conferencing. By consent of both the parties, the Contempt Petition is taken up for final disposal.

2. The present petition has been filed seeking to punish the respondents for the wilful disobedience of the order of this Court dated 15.04.2019 made in W.P.No.35854 of 2004 under Section 11 of the Contempt of Courts Act.

3. When the matter is taken up for consideration, Mr.D.Simon, learned Central Government Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the fourth respondent stated that, as against the order of this Court dated 15.04.2019, they have preferred a Writ Appeal, in which the delay has already been condoned and the appeal is likely to be listed shortly.

4. In my view, the present Contempt Petition need not be kept pending, since the respondents have filed a writ appeal. However, if the petitioner is still of the view that there is a contempt of the Court's order, even after disposal of the Writ Appeal, liberty is hereby granted to them to file a fresh Contempt Petition.

5. Accordingly, the present Contempt Petition stands closed.
