O R D E R

This criminal original petition has been filed for quashing the impugned FIR in Crime No.224 of 2019 registered on the file of the first respondent for the offences under Sections 287 and 338 of I.P.C.

2.The defacto complainant is Senthil Lakshmi, the second respondent herein. The victim in this case is her husband namely., Ponnalagan. Both the defacto complainant as well as the victim are present before me. The petitioners are running a coir factory and on the occurrence date, due to an industrial accident the hand of the third respondent got crushed in the machine leading to its eventual amputation. The petitioners have paid a sum of Rs.3,00,000/- by way of demand draft and the same has been accepted by the private respondents herein towards full and final settlement. In fact a joint compromise memo has also been filed. The same is taken on record. It will form part of the order. The victim and the defacto complainant are identified by their counsel and

Mr.Rajappa, Special Sub Inspector of Police, Natham Police Station, identifies the victim as well as the defacto complainant.

3.Since the victim himself is not having any objection for quashing the impugned FIR, I am of the view that keeping the same alive will not serve any purpose. Therefore, the impugned FIR stands quashed and the criminal original petition is allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
