PRAYER : Petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus, calling for the entire records connected with the Detention Order of the second respondent in TN.P.D.A.B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.01/Goonda/2020, dated 29.1.2020 and to quash the same and to direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Arun @ Arunkumar, son of Ramu, aged about 24 years, now detained as ''Goonda'' at Madurai Central Prison, before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Respondents : Mr.V.Neelakandan

O R D E R

(Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.)

The prayer in the Habeas Corpus Petition is to quash the order passed by the second respondent dated 29.1.2020 in TN.P.D.A.B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.01/Goonda/2020, and to direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name Arun @ Arunkumar, son of Ramu, aged about 24 years,, now detained as ''Goonda'' at Madurai Central Prison, before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

2. Heard Mr.R.Alagumani, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner and Mr.V.Neelakandan, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.

3. It is submitted by Mr.R.Alagumani, learned counsel for the petitioner that though the detention order has been assailed on several grounds, it is liable to be set aside on the ground of failure to intimate the arrest of the detenu either to his family members or his relatives. According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the non-intimation of arrest would seriously affect the valuable rights of the detenu to make effective representation to the Authorities concerned for revocation of the detention order.

4. Per contra, Mr.V.Neelakandan, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents, while reiterating the counter affidavit filed by the second respondent, would submit that the detention order has been passed by the Detaining Authority after satisfying with the materials placed by the Sponsoring Authority and there is no illegality or irregularity in the impugned detention order. Furthermore, the intimation of arrest of the detenu was given through SMS and hence, the rights of the detenu has not been affected in any manner.

5. A perusal of the arrest intimation form available at Page No.67 of the booklet shows that the arrest of the detenu in the ground case was intimated through SMS to the Cell No.7708196441. However, there is no material to show that the said Cell Number belongs to the family members of the detenu or his relatives and the text of the message is also not found place in the booklet. This Court, following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of D.K.Basu vs. State of West Bengal, reported in AIR (1997) SC 610, in several cases, has consistently held that if there is no proper intimation of arrest of the detenu either to his family members or his relatives, his valuable rights would seriously prejudiced on the sense that they will not have the opportunity to make effective representation to the Authority concerned in time for revocation of the detention order.

6. In the light of the above facts and circumstances, we are convinced that the impugned detention order would not stand to the scrutiny of this Court and the same is, therefore, liable to be set aside.

7. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The order of detention passed by the second respondent, in TN.P.D.A.B.C.D.F.G.I.S.S.S.V.No.01/Goonda/2020, dated 29.1.2020, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu, namely, Arun @ Arunkumar, son of Ramu, aged about 24 years, who is now detained at Central Prison, Madurai, is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case / proceedings.
