3. Even though in the petition it is mentioned that SC/ST Act may be invoked against the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) states that only IPC offences have been registered against the petitioners. It is seen that Crime No.48 of 2020 has been registered only for the offences under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC. It is also further stated by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) that the third petitioner is not an accused in this case. Therefore, I am inclined to grant relief.

4. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, anticipatory bail is granted. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur, and on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.
