DP Act and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.4 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the defacto complainant states that the marriage between the defacto complainant and the first accused took place on 30.11.2017. A child was also born through the wedlock. A1 is presently abroad. In the meanwhile, the case on hand has been registered.

4. The petitioner's counsel, on instructions, from the first accused states that the first accused will remit a minimum sum of Rs.15,000/- every month. The said amount will be remitted to the defacto complainant's account on or before 5th of every month. This towards the maintenance of the defacto complainant and the child.

5. Recording the petitioner's undertaking, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Kanyakumari District, Nagercoil, and on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation. The petitioners shall comply with the conditions stipulated under Section 438 Cr.P.C scrupulously.

6. The petitioners shall appear before the concerned Magistrate within a period of 15 days from the date on which the order copy made ready, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed.
