2.I categorically told the learned Government Advocate that the petitioner must be allotted a place where dharnas are normally conducted. The learned Government Advocate produced before me a bunch of photographs which indicate that the vacant place opposite to a shop namely., Star Gold Covering is the place where dharnas are normally conducted in the said locality. The learned Government Advocate has made available a bunch of photographs indicating the holding of such dharnas by various political groups. I make it clear that the petitioner also will be permitted to hold his protest on an appropriate date but at the very same site and venue.

3.With this direction to the respondents, the contempt petition is disposed of.
