This Criminal Original Petition has been filed for quashing the impugned proceedings instituted by the first respondent under Section 107 of Cr.P.C.

2.The petitioner's counsel would point out that in the impugned proceedings, both 'A' party and 'B' Party have been clubbed together. Such holding of joint enquiry has already been held to be illegal in a catena of cases.

3.The said submission made by the petitioner's counsel is well founded. The impugned proceedings are therefore, quashed and this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition stands closed.
