PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a writ of habeas corpus calling for the entire records pertaining to the detention order passed by the second respondent in Detention Order No.12/2020 dated 05.02.2020 and set aside the same as illegal and direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the petitioner's husband namely, Shanmughasundaram, male, aged about 51 years, who is detained in Central Prison, Trichy before this Court and set him at liberty.

For Petitioner : Mr.N.Anantha Padmanaban

For Respondents : Mr.K.Dinesh Babu
Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.]

The Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the wife of the detenu, namely, Shanmughasundaram, son of Subramanian, Male aged about 51 years, who has been branded as "Sexual Offender" by the second respondent in Detention Order No.12/2020 dated 05.02.2020, as contemplated under Section 2(ggg) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2.Though several grounds have been raised challenging the impugned order of detention passed by the second respondent, dated 05.02.2020 Mr.N.Anantha Padmanaban, learned senior counsel for the petitioner would contend that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India has been violated and there is an inordinate and unexplained delay in considering the representation of the petitioner and on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to be set aside.

3.Per contra, Mr.K.Dinesh Babu, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would argue that the detaining authority, namely, the second respondent herein, after being satisfied with the materials produced by the sponsoring authority, has passed the detention order only to prevent the detenu from indulging in similar offence in future, which would prejudice to the maintenance of the public order. He would further state that the delay, if any, in considering the representation would not cause any prejudice to the detenu and there is no infirmity or irregularity in the order of detention passed by the second respondent. Hence, he prayed for dismissal of the Habeas Corpus Petition.

4.We have heard the rival submissions and perused the materials available on records.

5.In the instant case, it is not in dispute that the detenu was detained by the order of the second respondent dated 05.02.2020. Aggrieved over the same, a representation dated 19.02.2020 has been sent to the first respondent and the same was received on 24.02.2020 and on 25.02.2020, remarks were called for, but the same were received only on 23.03.2020. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 24.03.2020. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 21.04.2020 and thereafter, the detenu's representation was rejected on 21.04.2020. It is seen that there was delay of 27 days between 25.02.2020 and 23.03.2020. It is also seen that there are 8 Government holidays and after excluding the same, there is a delay of 19 days in considering the representation of the detenu.

6.In the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another (1999 (1) SCC 417) the Honourable Apex Court observed and held that it is for the authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, there is absolutely no explanation for the delay of 19 days in considering the representation of the detenu. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

8. In fine, the order of detention passed by the second respondent, in Detention Order Cr.M.P.No.12/2020 dated 05.02.2020 is set aside and the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. Consequently, the detainee, namely, Shanmughasundaram, son of Subramanian, Male, aged about 51 years,, now detained at Trichy Central Prison is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
