PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a writ of habeas corpus to call for the entire records connected with the detention order of the Respondent No.2 in Detention Order No.08/2020 dated 05.02.2020 and quash the same and to direct the respondents to produce the body or person of the detenu by name, Manimaran, Son of Bose, aged about 28 years, now confining as Drug Offender at Madurai Central Prison before this Court and set him at liberty forthwith.

For Petitioner : Mr.R.Prakash

For Respondents : Mr.V.Neelakandan

[Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.]

The Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the detenu, namely, Manimaran, Son of Bose, Male aged about 28 years, who has been branded as "Drug Offender" by the second respondent in Detention Order No.08/2020, dated 05.02.2020, as contemplated under Section 2(e) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2.Though several grounds have been raised challenging the impugned order of detention passed by the second respondent, dated
<https://hcservices.ecourts.gov.in/hcservices/>

05.02.2020, Mr.R.Prakash, learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India has been violated and there is an inordinate and unexplained delay in considering the representation of the petitioner and on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to be set aside.

3.Per contra, Mr.V.Neelakandan, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would argue that the detaining authority, namely, the second respondent herein, after being satisfied with the cogent materials produced by the sponsoring authority, has passed the detention order only to prevent the detenu from indulging in similar offence in future, which would prejudice to the maintenance of the public order. He would further state that the delay, if any, in considering the representation would not cause any prejudice to the detenu and there is no infirmity or irregularity in the order of detention passed by the second respondent. Hence, he prayed for dismissal of the Habeas Corpus Petition.

4.We have heard the rival submissions and perused the materials available on records.

5.In the instant case, it is not in dispute that the detenu was detained by the order of the second respondent dated 05.02.2020. Aggrieved over the same, a representation dated 21.02.2020 has been sent to the first respondent and the same was received on 26.02.2020 and on the same day, remarks were called for. But the remarks were received on 09.03.2020. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 09.03.2020. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 17.03.2020 and thereafter, the detenu's representation was rejected on 18.03.2020. It is seen that there was delay of 12 days between 26.02.2020 and 09.03.2020. It is also seen that there are 4 Government holidays and after excluding the same, there is a delay of 8 days in considering the representation of the detenu.

6.In the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another (1999 (1) SCC 417) the Honourable Apex Court observed and held that it is for the authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, there is absolutely no explanation for the delay of 8 days in considering the representation of the detenu. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

8. In fine, the order of detention passed by the second respondent, in Detention Order No.08/2020 dated 05.02.2020, is set aside and the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. Consequently, the detenu, namely, Manimaran, Son of Bose, Male aged about 28 years, now detained at Madurai Central Prison, is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
