3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner's husband was already arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 11.12.2019 and he was released on bail on 09.03.2020. He would further submit that the petitioner is nothing to do with the business of the husband and she is falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the State would submit that the petitioner along with her husband induced 23 depositors (so far) to the tune of Rs.20,00,000/- in connection with S Mart online business and in view of the voluminous of the complaint being received, the matter is now referred to EOW. The husband was arrested and subsequently enlarged on bail.
