the petitioner and is pressurizing him to vacate the property in question.

3.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side), on instructions, states that the complaint given by the fourth respondent was enquired into and it has since been closed and the parties have been advised to move the Civil Court. It appears that civil suit is also pending. Therefore, it is for the parties to work out their rights only in the pending civil proceedings. On this note, the complaint given by the fourth respondent has been closed also.

4.Since the specific submission regarding the closure of the fourth respondent's complaint has been made before this Court, recording the same, this Criminal Original Petition is also closed.
