which are sought to be obtained through this writ petition. Today, when the matter is called, learned Special Government pleader produced before this Court a typed set of papers containing all the documents that are required by the petitioner in his representation. The copies of the documents also have been furnished to the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the petitioner has acknowledged the receipt of the same. The service of those documents to the learned counsel for the petitioner will be treated as service to the petitioner pursuant to the representation that he has made.
