O R D E R

[Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.]

The Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the wife of the detenu, namely, Veeramani, son of Ponnaiah Thevar, Male aged about 45 years, who has been branded as "Drug Offender" by the second respondent in Detention Order No.32/2020 dated 23.06.2020, as contemplated under Section 2(3) of the Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2.Though several grounds have been raised challenging the impugned order of detention passed by the second respondent, dated 23.06.2020, Mr.M.Jegadeesh Pandian, learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India has been violated and there is an inordinate and unexplained delay in considering the representation of the petitioner and on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to be set aside.

3.Per contra, Mr.K.Dinesh Babu, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents would argue that the detaining authority, namely, the second respondent herein, after being satisfied with the materials produced by the sponsoring authority, has passed the detention order only to prevent the detenu from indulging in similar offence in future, which would prejudice to the maintenance of the public order. He would further state that the delay, if any, in considering the representation would not cause any prejudice to the detenu and there is no infirmity or irregularity in the order of detention passed by the second respondent. Hence, he prayed for dismissal of the Habeas Corpus Petition.

4.We have heard the rival submissions and perused the materials available on records.

5.In the instant case, it is not in dispute that the detenu was detained by the order of the second respondent dated 23.06.2020. Aggrieved over the same, a representation dated 11.07.2020 has been sent to the first respondent and the same was received on 21.07.2020 and on the same day, remarks were called for, but the same were received only on 10.08.2020. The Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 10.08.2020. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 03.09.2020 and thereafter, the detenu's representation was rejected on 04.09.2020. It is seen that there was delay of 23 days between 10.08.2020 and 03.09.2020. It is also seen that there are 6 Government holidays and after excluding the same, there is a delay of 17 days in considering the representation of the detenu.

6.In the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another (1999 (1) SCC 417) the Honourable Apex Court observed and held that it is for the authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, there is absolutely no explanation for the delay of 17 days in considering the representation of the detenu. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

8.In fine, the order of detention passed by the second respondent, in Detention Order No.32/2020 dated 23.06.2020 is set aside and the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. Consequently, the detenu, namely, Veeramani, son of Ponnaiah Thevar, male, aged about 45 years, now detained at Madurai Central Prison is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
