Heard the learned counsel on either side. By consent of both parties, the Writ Petition is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

2. The petitioner is aggrieved by an order passed by the first respondent in favour of the private respondents herein. This Court informed the petitioner that the writ as such is not maintainable. Because he has to challenge the order passed against him by the first respondent.

3. The petitioner's counsel states that he has not been furnished with the copy of the same. Therefore, even while
