3.The case of the prosecution is that due to some civil dispute the petitioner herein along with other accused persons said to have abused the defacto complainant and attacked him with iron rod and caused injuries. Hence the complaint.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would also submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that due to civil dispute the petitioner herein along with other accused persons said to have abused the defacto complainant and attacked him with iron rod and caused injuries and the injured person was discharged from the hospital.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also taking note of the fact that the occurrence is said to have taken place due to wordy quarrel and the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Singamuneri on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(e) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(f) if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
