Special Government Pleader

C O M M O N O R D E R

Heard the learned counsel on either side. All that the petitioners want is the consideration of the petition mentioned representation.

2.The learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondent has some reservations in this regard. I make it clear that I am only directing the respondent to take a call in the matter. I am not asking the respondent to pass order in a particular way or manner. This is left to the discretion of the respondent. The respondent shall dispose of the petition mentioned representation on merits and in accordance with law within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
