KRISHNAMOORTHY @ MOORTHY ... PETITIONER/APPELLANT/ACCUSED NO.3

Vs

STATE REP.BY
THE INSPECTOR OF POLICE, UDAYALIPATTI POLICE STATION,
PUDUKKOTTAI DISTRICT,
CRIME NO.82 OF 2016.

... COMPLAINANT/RESPONDENT

Petition praying that in the circumstances stated therein and in the petition filed therewith the High Court will be pleased to Suspend the sentence the Imprisonment imposed by the learned Mahila Court, Pudukkottai District at Pudukkottai in S.C.No.96 of 2017 by the Judgment dated 13.12.2019 and to enlarge the Appellant/Petitioner on bail, pending disposal of the above Criminal Appeal.

Order : This petition coming on for orders upon perusing the petition filed in support thereof and upon hearing the arguments of M/S.T.KUMAR, Advocate for the petitioner and of MR.R.ANANDARAJ, Additional Public Prosecutor on behalf of the Respondent, the court made the following order:-

[Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.]

A1 to A4, who were convicted by the Mahila Court, Pudukkottai in S.C.No.96 of 2017 for the offence under Sections 341, 324 and 302 r/w Section 34 of IPC., have preferred this appeal. Pending appeal, the third accused Krishnamoorthy @ Moorthy seeks suspension of sentence

2.The case of the prosecution is that all the accused are friends and native of Killukottai village. On 29.10.2016, at about 3.00 p.m quarrel arose between the first accused and the deceased near wine shop situated at Killukottai, in which, the deceased was attacked. Thereafter, the deceased informed the same to the witnesses. Then all of them questioned the first accused over the incident. Thereupon, the first accused called the other accused and the issue was pacified by the intervention of third parties. Then at about 4.00 p.m., when the deceased and the witnesses were proceeding to their village, they were way-laid by the accused, who were armed with weapons and in the attack, the deceased received multiple injuries and died on the spot.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner would argue that admittedly, there was no previous enmity between the accused and the deceased and only on sudden provocation, the incident had taken place. It is the further submission of the learned counsel for the Petitioner that though the prosecution has projected P.Ws.1 to 3 as eye-witnesses to the occurrence, but their evidence is untrustworthy and unbelievable, since there are lot of discrepancies in their evidence. It is the submission of the learned counsel for the Petitioner that according to the prosecution, the Petitioner-A3 used sword at the time of occurrence, but in the Accident Register, it has been stated as the deceased was attacked with aruval and iron rod. Further, the sword said to have been recovered from the Petitioner was not sent for Chemical analysis.

4.Per contra, Mr.R.Anandharaj, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent would vehemently oppose the petition by contending that the testimony of P.W.s 1 to 3 who have witnessed the occurrence is cogent, reliable and only based on their evidence, conviction has been rendered by the trial Court. Even if there is no Serologist Report for the sword recovered from the Petitioner, there is ample ocular evidence to sustain the conviction and prays for dismissal of the Petition for suspension of sentence.

5.In the matter on hand, during the cross-examination P.W.16/Investigating Officer has admitted that the deceased was involved in a number of criminal cases, including murder. It is noticed that P.W.1 in the chief-examination itself, has admitted that he informed to the Doctor at the time of admission that the deceased was attacked with aruval and iron rod, but in this case, swords were said to have been used by two of the accused.

6.Considering the above aspects, we are of the opinion that the Petitioner/A3 is entitled for suspension of sentence during pendency of the appeal. Accordingly, the criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the substantive sentence of imprisonment imposed on the petitioner/A3 alone is suspended, subject to the following conditions:

i. The petitioner is directed to be enlarged on bail on his executing a bond for Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties, of whom, one should be a blood-related surety, each for a like-sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Keeranur.

ii. The sureties shall affix their photographs and Left obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity.

iii. The petitioner shall appear before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Keeranur at 10.30 a.m. on the first working day of every English Calendar month, until further orders.

iv. On any particular date, if the petitioner is not able to appear, leave is granted to the petitioner to file an application under Section 317 Cr.P.C. and appear before the Trial Court on any other day, as determined by the Trial Court, in lieu of the day on which they would absent.
