notification. If any candidate has not properly filled up the application through on-line process and the authorities competent found that the application is dead of requisite particulars, then, they have got every right to reject the application. As far as the present writ petition is concerned, the application of the petitioner itself was rejected and thereafter, the process of recruitment to the post of Sub-Inspector of Police was concluded long back. This being the factum, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the writ petition pending. No further adjudication is required, as the petitioner has not established any right.

3. Accordingly, the writ petition stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
