PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec.438 of Cr.P.C

PRAYER :-

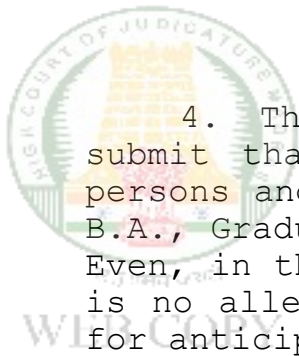

For Anticipatory Bail in Cr.No.1747 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police.

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner who is arrayed as A-11 apprehending arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 302, 324, 506(ii), 147, 148, 115, 120B, in Crime No.1747 of 2020 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that totally there are 13 accused persons have involved in the case of murder and the petitioner is arrayed as A-11. On 15.09.2020 all the accused persons said to have brutally assaulted the deceased and two other persons. The deceased has sustained grievous injuries and admitted in the Government Hospital, Thirupparakundram on 15.09.2020, thereafter, he died. Further, the two other persons also got injured during the occurrence. Hence, a complaint has been registered.

3. Heard the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (criminal side).

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the accused persons and her name is not found in the FIR. The petitioner being B.A., Graduate, she is no way connected with the alleged occurrence. Even, in the alteration report filed by the respondent police, there is no allegations as against the petitioner and as such she sought for anticipatory bail.

5. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) appearing for the respondent police has submitted that, due to previous enmity between the A-1 and the deceased, in respect of A-1's sister marriage, the petitioner conspired with all other accused persons and provided weapons to the accused persons to get away life of father of the defacto complainant. He further submitted that infact, two other persons also got injured and as such the petitioner has got specific over tact and there are materials for conspiracy with other accused persons and further she only provided weapons to other accused persons to indulge the case of murder.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the intervener would submit that the petitioner has conspired with other accused persons and also provided weapons to the accused persons to get away life of father of the defacto complainant. He would further submit that A-1's sister got married to the defacto complainant and there is a misunderstanding between them and as such a divorce petition is pending on the file of the Family Court, Madurai.

7. It is seen from the records that, initially the respondent police has registered a case against A-1 & A-2, after investigation, they have filed alteration report against 13 accused persons and the petitioner was arrayed as A-11. Though, the petitioner name is not found in the FIR, she conspired with other accused persons and also provided deadly weapons to get away life of father of the defacto complainant. It is also seen that A-1's sister got married to the defacto complainant and thereafter, constrained relationship between them and also HMOP proceeding is pending before the Family Court, Madurai and in respect of there was an enmity and therefore, the petitioner has got specific over tact in the case. Further, it is a case of murder. Therefore, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

8. Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
