... Respondents

Prayer: Writ petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a Writ of Mandamus, directing the respondents 1 to 4 to convene a peace meeting regarding the Kumbabisheham festival of Sri La Sri Deiva Nayaga Swamigal Temple dated 28.10.2020 & 29.10.2020, Manoor Village, Palani Taluk and then to conduct the said temple festival in a peaceful manner with the co-operation and participation of all the people of Manoor Village, Palani Taluk.

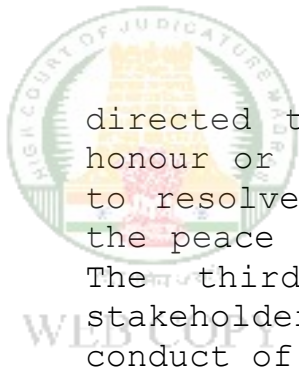

For Petitioner : Mr.P.Saravanan

For Respondents : Mr.R.Srinivasan,
Government Advocate for R1 to R4

O R D E R

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents 1 to 4.

2.There is some dispute regarding the conducting of the petition mentioned event on 28.10.2020 and 29.10.2020. When another party filed a writ petition before this Court, I had specifically directed that while the event may go on, the question of first honour or first respect to any body does not arise at all. In order to resolve the issue, the third respondent is directed to convene the peace committee meeting so that the event passes off peacefully. The third respondent will ensure the presence of all the stakeholders. This exercise shall be done well in time before the conduct of the petition mentioned event.

3.The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
