and other police officials made a search in their locality the petitioners along with other accused persons said to have abused the defacto complainant and also assaulted the police officials.

3. The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) raised serious objections by stating that while the police officials discharging their duties they were attacked by all the accused persons and the mobile phone of the police officer was also taken away by the accused persons and some of the accused persons in this case pushed the police officials and attacked them.

4. Investigation is going on and granting anticipatory bail at this juncture is not preferable.

5. Hence these petitions stands dismissed.
