O R D E R

This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the First Information Report in Crime No.108 of 2020 on the file of the first respondent police as against the petitioner.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioner would state that the allegation against the petitioner is that on 13.03.2020, the petitioner and others unlawfully assembled and raised slogans against the State and Central Government in view of the arrest of PFI members in Delhi, without getting any permission. On the basis of the complaint of the second respondent, a case was registered against the petitioner and other persons by the first respondent in Crime No.108 of 2020 for the offence under Sections 143, 341 IPC. The learned counsel would further state that on the face of FIR, it does not make out any offence and that the issue in the present case is covered by the decision of this Court in Jeevanantham vs. State reported in 2018 (2) K.W. (Crl) 606.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the first respondent, on instructions, would state that on 13.03.2020, the petitioner and others unlawfully assembled and raised slogans against the State and Central Government in view of the arrest of PFI members in Delhi, without getting any permission and caused disturbance to the free flow of public and he would fairly state that no violence or untoward incident had taken place.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the 1st respondent.

5. In the decision relied on by the petitioner in 2018 (2) K.W. (Crl) 606, Jeevanantham vs. State, this Court has held as follows:-

'In all the cases, the assembly of persons were made to express dissatisfaction of the governance and claiming for minimum rights that are guaranteed to a ordinary citizen. If such an assembly of persons are to be trifled by registering an FIR under Section 143 of IPC and filing a final report for the very same offence, no democratic dissent can ever be shown by the citizens and such prohibition will amount to violation of fundamental rights guaranteed under the Constitution.'

6. In my considered opinion, the above decisions are squarely applicable to present case on hand. The entire reading of the FIR does not make out any offence and it is not supported by any material evidence and therefore, I am inclined to quash the FIR.

7. Accordingly, the impugned F.I.R in Crime No.108 of 2020, on the file of the first respondent police is quashed and the Criminal Original Petition is allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
