Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the 1st respondent.

2.This Criminal Original Petition has been filed to quash the impugned First Information Report in Crime No. 190 of 2020, on the file of the respondent No.1. The second respondent/Sub Inspector of Police is the de-facto complainant.

3. The gist of the First Information Report is that on 11.03.2020, the petitioner and others had conducted a demonstration against the Amendment of CAA (Citizenship Amendment Act) and NRC (National Register Citizenship) near Kuppupillaithoppu Junction, Southveli Veethi, Madurai. Hence, the first respondent police has registered First Information Report in Crime No.190 of 2020 on the same day for the alleged offences under Sections 143, 291, 341, 353 IPC.

4.The case of the respondent is that the petitioner by his acts had committed public nuisance. He had also caused interference with the free flow of general traffic.

5.Though, there are prima facie materials to justify the registration of the First Information Report, I am of the view that its continuance is not warranted. This is because no untoward incident had taken place. The country had witnessed protests all over by different sections of people against the said amendments. Since the protest was peaceful and even the First Information Report does not disclose any act of violence or happening of untoward incident, I am of the view that the continued prosecution is not warranted. Quashing the same will secure the ends of justice.

6. Hence, the impugned First Information Report impugned in Crime No.190 of 2020, on the file of the respondent No.1 in this petition stands quashed. The Criminal Original Petition stands allowed. The benefit of this order will enure not only for the petitioner but also the non-petitioning accused. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
