2.A perusal of the Grounds of Detention dated 02.08.2019, passed by the 2nd respondent herein, would disclose among other things that the detenu, viz.,Achi Masala Balu @ Balakrishnan came to the adverse notice in the following case:-

Sl. No.	Name of the Police Station and Crime No.	Section of Law
1.	Alangudi Prohibition Enforcement Wing Cr.No.49 of 2019	U/s 4(1)(aaa) r/w 4(1-A) TNP Act, 1937

It is further stated in the grounds of detention that the detenu was involved in a case for the commission of offences under Sections 4(1)(a) r/w 4(1-A) (Transport) Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, 1937 in Alangudi Prohibition Enforcement Wing Crime No.792 of 2019 (ground case). The detenu was arrested on 22.07.2019 and produced before the Court of Judicial Magistrate, Alangudi on the same day and remanded to Judicial custody. The detaining authority on being satisfied with the materials placed by the sponsoring authority that the activities of the detenu are prejudicial to the maintenance of public peace and public order, clamped the order of detention and making a challenge to the same, the present Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the petitioner.

3.We have heard Mr.K.M.Karunakaran, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.K.Dinesh Babu, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.

4.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has drawn the attention of this Court to page Nos.30 & 31 of the booklet and would submit that after the arrest of the accused in ground case in Crime No.792 of 2019, the arrest intimation was not communicated to the family members of the detenu and though the arrest intimation was said to have been sent to the mobile No.9676639683 through SMS, the person to whom the message was sent to the said mobile number has not been identified and the signature of the concerned person has also not been obtained and in the light of the non-communication of the arrest intimation, the guidelines given by the Hon'ble Apex Court reported in AIR (1997) SC 610 [D.K. Basu v. State of West Bengal] is violated and as such, the impugned order of detention is liable to be quashed.

5. In support of his submission, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has relied on an unreported order of this Court dated 07.06.2019 made in H.C.P. (MD) No.26 of 2019 in the matter of Natarajan v. State of Tamil Nadu, rep. by The Principal Secretary to Government and two others, in which one of us (B.PUGALENDHI, J) was a party. The relevant portion of the order runs thus:

"8.As rightly pointed out by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, perusal of page No.20 of the booklet would disclose that though the arrest intimation was given to his wife/Kavitha through mobile No.8012668200, neither the text of the intimation given nor the signature of the person, has been found place, hence and the same is in violation of D.K. Basu v. State of West Bengal reported in AIR (1997) SC 610 and hence, on the sole ground, the impugned order of detention is liable to be quashed."

6.Though we have heard the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents, we are unable to find any explanation as to why the arrest intimation was not communicated to the family members of the detenu. Further, page No.31 of the booklet shows neither the text of the intimation is given nor the signature of the person, who is said to have been informed has been obtained. That clearly shows that the arrest intimation was not given to the family members of the detenu, hence, the non-communication of the arrest intimation violates the guidelines given by the Hon'ble Apex Court reported in AIR (1997) SC 610 [D.K. Basu v. State of West Bengal] and as such, the impugned order of detention is liable to be set aside.

7.The Hon'ble Apex Court in Rekha v. State of T.N. reported in (2011) 5 SCC 244 has ruled that the preventive detention is, by nature repugnant to democratic ideas and an anathema to the rule of law. No such law exists in the USA and in England (except during war time). It may be mentioned herein that in cases of preventive detention no offence is proved and the justification of such detention is suspicion or reasonable probability, and there is no conviction which can only be warranted by legal evidence. When the detaining authority passes the order of detention on subjective satisfaction, as per clause (3) of Article 22 the detenu is not entitled to a lawyer or the right to be produced before a Magistrate within 24 hours of arrest. Such article excludes the applicability of clauses (1) and (2). However, to prevent misuse of this potentially dangerous power the law of preventive detention has to be strictly construed and meticulous compliance with the procedural safeguards, however technical, is, in our opinion, mandatory and vital.

8.The exclusion of applicability of clauses (1) and (2) of Article 22 does not mean that the arrest of detenu should not be informed to his family members, which is sine qua non, therefore, the non-compliance would vitiate the very detention itself. Applying this ratio here, we hold that the non-compliance of the mandatory condition that the family members of the detenu should be informed of his arrest having not been done in this case, would vitiate the very detention itself. Accordingly, on this sole ground, the detention order is liable to fall.

9.In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed by setting aside the Order of Detention passed by the second respondent herein, namely, the District Collector, Pudukkottai District, Pudukkottai in P.D.O.No.33/2019 dated 02.08.2019. Consequently, the detenu, namely, Achi Masala Balu @ Balakrishnan, son of Elangovan, aged about 32 years, who is now detained at Central Prison, Trichy is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence [or] custody [or] detention is required in connection with any other case/proceedings.
