O R D E R

This criminal original petition has been filed seeking police protection.

2. It is well settled that an order of police protection can be granted only to enforce a civil Court's decree or order. In this case, the petitioner is very much having a civil Court's decree in her favour. If that be so, the petitioner can very well enforce the same by filing an E.P. before the concerned Court. If respondents 3 and 4 are violating any decree of injunction, they can be punished by instituting appropriate proceedings. Since the petitioner is having an effective, alternative remedy, leaving open the same, the criminal original petition stands closed.
