O R D E R

This criminal original petition has been filed for quashing the impugned First Information Report in Crime No.177 of 2015 registered on the file of Chatrakudi police station for the offences under Sections 465 and 420 of I.P.C.

2. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

3. One Veeramahali is the defacto complainant herein. Her husband Murugesan died in an accident on 17.02.2015. It appears that the motor vehicle that was involved in the accident is a stolen vehicle. Veeramahali has also filed MCOP claiming compensation before the concerned Tribunal. The petitioner Ramakrishnan is figuring as one of the respondents in the said MCOP. Ramakrishnan now states that he will give a sum of Rs.1,50,000/-. Veeramahali directly to obtain exoneration from his liability.

4. I impressed upon Veeramahali/the defacto complainant herein about the implications of the offer made by the petitioner. <https://hcservices.ecourts.gov.in/hcservices/> Veeramahali was assisted by her brother-in-law Arjunan. Veeramahali is agreeable to receive the sum of Rs.1,50,000/- from Ramakrishnan. She also has no objection for quashing the impugned First Information Report. She also states that she will exonerate Ramakrishnan from other liabilities. She will pursue her claim against the other persons. In other words, she receives a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- given by Ramakrishnan to her by way of Demand Draft bearing No.102078 drawn on the Axis Bank Ltd., Ramanathapuram, dated 25.02.2020 favouring her. Since the matter has been amicably resolved, I am of the view that keeping the impugned First Information Report will not serve any purpose.

5. Therefore, the impugned First Information Report stands quashed. The criminal original petition stands allowed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
