For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.V.Neelakandan

Additional Public Prosecutor

O R D E R

(Order of the Court was made by K.KALYANASUNDARAM, J.)

This habeas corpus petition has been filed by the detenu, namely, Manickaraja @ Manikandan, son of Manickam Chelliah, aged about 22 years, challenging the detention order in H.S.(M)

Confdl.No.62/19, dated 15.10.2019, passed by the second respondent, branding him as "Goonda" as contemplated under Section 2(f) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982.

2. Mr.R.Alagumani, learned counsel for the petitioner, would argue that even though the petitioner has raised several grounds, he has confined his arguments only to the delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the procedural safeguards guaranteed under Articles 21 and 22 of the Constitution of India have not been followed in this case and there is unexplained and inordinate delay in disposal of the petitioner's representation, which would vitiate the impugned order of detention.

3. Mr.V.Neelakandan, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, while reiterating the counter affidavit filed by the second respondent, submitted that after satisfying with the materials placed by the Sponsoring Authority, the Detaining Authority has passed the detention order and there is no illegality or infirmity in the detention order. It is also stated that even if there is any delay in disposal of the representation, it has not caused any prejudice to the rights of the detenu and hence, prayed for dismissal of the habeas corpus petition.

4. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

5. In the instant case, the proforma furnished by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would indicate that as against the impugned detention order, the petitioner made a representation to the first respondent on 22.10.2019 and it was received on 29.10.2019. Remarks were called for on the same day i.e.29.10.2019 and it was received on 04.11.2019. The Under Secretary as well as the Deputy Secretary dealt with the matter on 05.11.2019. The concerned Minister dealt with the matter on 27.11.2019 and the representation came to be rejected on 29.11.2019. It is seen that in between 05.11.2019 and 27.11.2019, there was a delay of sixteen days, after excluding the Government Holidays of five days, in considering the petitioner's representation.

6. At this juncture, it is useful to refer the decision of the Honourable Apex Court in the case of Rajammal vs. State of Tamil Nadu and another, reported in 1999 (1) SCC 417, wherein the Apex Court has observed and held that it is for the Authority concerned to explain the delay, if any, in disposal of the representation and if any delay was caused on account of nay indifference or lapse in considering the representation, such delay will adversely affect further detention of the prisoner.

7. In the case on hand, as stated supra, the delay of sixteen days in considering the representation of the petitioner has not been properly explained by the respondents. Hence, in our considered view, the detention order is liable to be set aside solely on the ground of delay by following the decision of the Honourable Apex Court referred supra.

8. In fine, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed. The detention order in H.S.(M) Confdl.No.62/19, dated 15.10.2019, passed by the second respondent, is set aside. Consequently, the detenu, namely, Manickaraja @ Manikandan, son of Manickam Chelliah, aged about 22 years, who is now detained at Palayamkottai Central Prison is directed to be released forthwith unless his presence or custody or detention is required in connection with any other case.
