This matter is pending since 2017 for admission.

2. This Court has gone through the docket. It is seen that the learned counsel for the revision petitioner has taken 13 adjournments and in few of the adjournments, he has also remained absent and they are relating to pre-Corona days.

3. This would imply, notwithstanding the on-going Corona times that the learned counsel for the petitioner shows least anxiety to appear before this Court even earlier. Hence, this Civil Revision Petition is dismissed for default. No costs.
