

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR-4683-2018(O&M)

Date of decision: 25.02.2020

Amar Verma

.....Petitioner

Versus

Sonia Sahi

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present:- Mr.Nikhil K Chopra, Advocate for the petitioner
Mr. Vishal Gupta, Advocate for the respondent

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (ORAL)

Parties alongwith their counsels are present in the Court.

Husband-petitioner has handed over two demand drafts for ₹4 lacs in total alongwith the key of Bank locker. Parties have also stated that a settlement has been arrived at between them with the sincere efforts of the Mediator attached to this Court and a signed deed of settlement has been filed.

Learned counsel for the parties have also stated that petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act for dissolving the marriage by way of mutual consent has been filed in which motion statement has been recorded.

Keeping in view the aforesaid development and the stand taken by the parties in the presence of their counsels, present petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous.

25.02.2020

rekha

Whether speaking/reasoned

Whether Reportable

(ANIL KSHETARPAL)

JUDGE

Yes / No

Yes / No