CRM-W-184-2020

This is an application for preponment of the main case which is fixed for 22.5.2020.

Learned counsel for the State states that he has no objection if the application is allowed.

With the consent of the parties, the case is taken on board for hearing today itself.

Application stands allowed.

CRWP-1655-2020

This petition has been filed for releasing the petitioner on parole for a period of 6 weeks to look after his ailing wife.

As per the order rejecting the prayer the petitioner may abscond and is in the habit of committing offence again and again and others cases are also registered against him. It is however not disputed that earlier also this very petitioner had been released on interim bail for 10 days subject to the furnishing of bail bonds of Rs. 1 lakhs and he surrendered on the conclusion thereof. He has undergone three and half years of imprisonment out of total sentence of eleven years.

In these circumstances, we see no good reason to deny the petitioner the benefit of parole. However, the prayer for six weeks is not well merited. Consequently the petition stands allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on parole for a period of three weeks subject to satisfaction of the jail authorities. On the expiry of period of parole of three weeks the petitioner is directed to surrender before the jail authorities. However, the parole shall be subject to the following terms and conditions :-

- (i) The petitioner shall furnish a telephone number to the Jail Superintendent on which he can be contacted, if required. After his release, he shall also inform his telephone number to the SHO of the police station concerned.
- (ii) The period of parole shall be counted from the date after the date when the petitioner is released from jail.

Since the main case has been allowed, the pending application if any also stands disposed of.
